

NCAA WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

May 30-June 5, 2013
ASA Hall of Fame Stadium
Oklahoma City, Okla.

POSTGAME NOTES

Game 2: Tennessee 9, Florida 2

- The second game of the Women's College World Series saw NCAA Tournament No. 7 seed Tennessee (50-10) defeat No. 2 seed Florida (57-8) by a 9-2 score.
- The game marked the first time the SEC opponents have met in NCAA postseason play. Tennessee improved to 13-10 all-time in its sixth WCWS appearance. In its fifth WCWS appearance, Florida fell to 11-10 all-time. The overall series record is now 43-21 in favor of Florida.
- The Lady Volunteers improved to 43-4 when scoring first this season.
- The nine runs scored by Tennessee were the most given up by Florida this season and the most the Lady Vols have scored against the Gators since 1999.
- Tennessee scored the first run of the game as sophomore Cheyanne Tarango drew a bases-loaded walk in the first inning, pushing senior Kat Dotson across the plate. Senior Melissa Brown then hit a two-run double to increase the lead to 3-0.
- Florida freshman Kelsey Stewart hit an RBI triple in the fifth inning, cutting Tennessee's lead to 3-1. It was Stewart's nation-leading 10th triple this season. Junior Stephanie Tofft then recorded a two-out single to score Stewart, making the score 3-2.
- Senior Kat Dotson sent a double to right field in the sixth inning, plating two runs and increasing the Lady Vols' lead to 6-2. In the next at-bat, senior Lauren Gibson added an RBI double, making the score 7-2.
- In the seventh inning, Dotson hit a triple to give Tennessee a 9-2 advantage. Dotson finished 3-for-4 with two runs and three RBIs.
- Tennessee junior pitcher Ellen Renfroe (18-4) pitched a complete game, giving up two runs on four hits while striking out nine batters.
- Florida starting pitcher Hannah Rogers fell to 33-6 on the season. The junior walked three batters and surrendered one hit and three runs in 0.1 innings.
- In 6.1 innings of relief work, Florida sophomore pitcher Lauren Haeger allowed 10 hits, six runs and two walks. Haeger also added four strikeouts.
- Tennessee will face Washington on Friday at 6 p.m., while Florida will play Nebraska in an elimination game Saturday at 11 a.m.
- Thursday's Session 1 attendance was 7,911. The Session 1 record of 8,149 was established last year.